NUMB. 41

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY January 9, to SATURDAY February 13, 1742.

No Papers having been publiſhed for Four Weeks paſt was occaſion'd by an unforeſeen Accident.

LONDON, October 10.

LATE laſt Night arrived an Expreſs from Portſmouth, with Advice, that Sir John Norris, in the Victory, Admiral Cavendiſh, in the St. George, with the Royal George, Royal Sovereign, Barfleur, Neptune, Sandwich, Naſſau, Buckingham, Newcaſtle, Portmahone, Sutherland Hoſpital Ship, and the Scipio and Blaze Fire-Ships, ſail'd Yeſterday Morning from Spithead, to the Weſtward.

At the ſame time ſail'd from St. Helens, Commodore Cornwall, with his Majeſty's Ships the Bedford, Marlborough, Eſſex, and Elizabeth, to reinforce the Squadron under Admiral Haddock in the Mediterranean. A great Number of Merchant Ships, outward bound, that lay at Spithead, St Helens, &c. took the Advantage of going down the Channel with theſe Men of War.

The Spaniſh Fleet at Cadiz, we hear, are in great Diſtreſs, and not fit to undertake any Enterprize; but if they were 'tis thought they would not venture out of their Harbour, being cloſely watch'd by Admiral Haddock, who has under his Command two Ships of 80, and one of 70, four of 50, two of 40, and two of 20 Guns, beſides Bombs, and Fire ſhips.

On the 5th inſtant a Spaniſh Dogger of ten Guns and fifty Men was on ſhore near Port en Beſſen on the Coaſt of Normandy, and had been ſo ſeveral Days; and it is thought, in caſe a Weſterly Wind blew freſh during her Stay there, ſhe is loſt.

October 17. The Fly Sloop of War, Capt. Elliot Smith, ſailed from Lisbon Sept. 14. laſt O. S. to cruize on that Coaſt, and returned into Lisbon the 19th ditto with a Spaniſh Prize.

Letters from Lisbon Sept. 30. N. S. ſay, that there were two Spaniſh Privateers at Anchor in that River, the one called the Santo Chriſto del Gratio, Capt. Domeneque, and the other the N. S. de los Deſemparados, Capt. de la Torre

October 20. In our Paper of Saturday laſt we mention'd, that a Ship with Stores for Gibraltar, having ſtraggled from the Convoy, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer; ſince which ſhe appears to be the Enterprize, Wood, from London, who fought the Privateer ſmartly for five Hours off the Borlings, but being overpower'd, was taken and carried into Vigo.

October 22. The People are very impatient to hear News of the French Fleets, who are both ſail'd, as is generally believed; and alſo of the behaviour of the Britiſh Fleets, in caſe the two former ſhould attempt to join

October 24. On Thurſday ſix beautiful Turkiſh Horſes, which were landed at the Tower the ſame Day, went thro' the City, for the King's Mews at Charing Croſs. They are a Preſent from the Grand Signior to his Majeſty.

The Robert, Richard Parker, Maſter, bound from Virginia with 214 Hogſheads of Tobaco, &c. to Whitehaven, was taken the 20th of September, to the Weſtward of Ireland, and carried into St Sebaſtian's the 8th inſtant.

October 27. On Thurſday Orders were iſſued from the War Office, for changing the Garriſons of the Tower, and Savoy, on Monday next, in each of which is a Battalion of the Second Regiment of Foot-Guards, commanded by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, which have lain there ever ſince the 17th of October 1740.

His Majeſty's Ship the South Sea Caſtle, of 40 Guns, Capt. William Dandridge, is appointed by the Lords of the Admiralty to be ſtation'd at Virginia, in the room of the Hector, order'd home.

They write from Marſeilles, of Oct. 23, N. S. that about five Days before the Toulon Squadron was met between Majorca and Yvica, ſteering directly for the Streights; but that all was as yet a Miſtery:

By Letters from Petersburgh we hear, that an Embaſſador from Kouli Kan is arrived there, with a Retinue of 2000 Perſons; and that he has brought a great Number of Preſents for the Imperial Court

November 3. In a few Days ſome Ships are to ſail with a Number of Recruits to the Province of Georgia, to fill up the Vancancies in the Regiment under the Command of General Oglethorpe.

They write from Cork, that the Tranſports, to the Number of 50 Ships, ſail'd from thence the 27th ult. for Jamaica, under the Convoy of four Men of War and two Bomb Ketches.

CHARLES-TOWN, January 22.

On Thurſday the 14th Inſtant, George Whitefield Clerk of the Church of England was ſuſpended from his Office, by the Biſhop of London's Commiſſary in this Province.

A Proceſs being inſtituted about 18 Months ago before the ſaid Commiſſary, againſt the ſaid George Whitefield for Breach of the 38th Canon of the Church, the ſaid George Whitefield interpoſed a Plea of Recuſation, or Refuſing the ſaid Commiſſary for his Judge: But this Plea being repelled, he then interpoſed an Appeal to the Lords Commiſſioners appointed by his Majeſty for hearing Appeals in Eccleſiaſtical Cauſes from America, which Appeal on his complying with the following legal Terms he had granted him, viz 1ſt. On his ſolemn Oath taken in open Court on the 19th Day of July 1740, that within one Year next enſuing from that Day, he would bona fide proſecute his Appeal then interpoſed by him in that Cauſe, and cauſe the Proſecution thereof to be authentically certified into that Court: And 2d. on his depoſiting the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling in the Hands of the Regiſter of the ſaid Court.

This Juratory Term expiring the 19th Day of July 1741, without any Decree, Order, or Injunction of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners being returned into the ſaid Court, the Commiſſary conceived it his Duty to proceed in the ſaid Cauſe; but which nevertheleſs he did in ſuch Manner as to delay the final Sentence for near the ſpace of five Months after the Expiration of the ſaid term: But as neither during that ſpace, was any Decree, Order, or Injunction of the ſaid Lords return'd into the ſaid Court; the final Sentence of Suſpenſion from his Office was proceeded to, and pronounced againſt him, as above mentioned.

New Port Dec. 11. Capt. Daniel Amory, Commander of a Sloop belonging to this Port arrived here laſt Week, who ſail'd from Fort Royal in Martinico the 24th of October laſt and from St. Peter's the 26th, and heard no Account of any Fleet, or Part of any French Fleet arrived there, ſo that the Information we had from Philadelphia by Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated the 13th of October, 1741. muſt be a wrong Information. Capt. Amory ſays, four Men of War were expected from France, which were deſign'd for Station Ships, viz. one for Martinico, two for St. Domingo, and one for Miſſiſipi.

SUPPLEMENT TO NUMB. 412.

BOSTON, December 7.

FRiday laſt Capt. Witham, who lately ſail'd for Virginia, returned back to this Port, having been taken by a Spaniſh Privateer Sloop of two Carriage and ſix Swivel Guns, and about 30 Men, off the Capes of Virginia, as he was going in. The Spaniards detain'd Capt. Witham about 30 Hours, (in which Time they took another Veſſel from this Port, alſo bound to Virginia,——Paddock Maſter) and then diſmiſſed him, having firſt ſtrip'd the Veſſel of much of her Furniture, all the Cargo but Rum and Sugar, (which would have been the firſt Thing taken by Engliſhmen) almoſt all the Proviſions, all the Books, Papers, & a few Rags juſt to cover them. This Sloop belonged to Philadelphia, and was taken a few Days before Capt. Witham, by a large Spaniſh Privateer Ship of 200 Tons and 130 Men, to whom ſhe was then a ſort of a Tender, the Ship being Cruiſing not far off. [we hear nothing of the gallant Virginia Knight in whoſe Province all this Miſchief was done, but have Reaſon to think he was ſafe in his Creek]

Dec. 14. Laſt Monday came on the Court of Vice-Admiralty, before the Hon. Robert Auchmuty, Eſq; Judge of the ſaid Court, the Trial of the Ship Grand Juſte, (with the Cargo) Vincent Dupleſſis late Commander, bound from the Havannah to Cadiz, and taken off of Madeira ſome Time ſince by His Majeſty's Ship Succeſs, upon this Station. The Trial laſted the greateſt part of four Days, and on Friday the Court was adjourned till To-Morrow, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at which Time the Judge is to give his Decree in this important Caſe. It is univerſally believed, and expected, that both Ship and Cargo will be condemned as lawful Prize.

Dec. 21. Laſt Tueſday the Hon. Robert Auchmuty, Eſq; Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty, pronounced his Decree of Condemnation againſt the Ship Grand Juſte, and her Cargo, as mentioned in our laſt Paper.

Laſt Saturday our Privateer Young Eagle, Capt. John Rouſe Commander, well fitted and mann'd, fell down to Nantaſket, in order to ſail upon a Cruiſe againſt the Spaniards.

LONDON,

November 5. Letters by this Day's French Mail bring certain Advice, that the Spaniſh Fleet at Cadiz were actually preparing to ſail the 24th of October, N. S. from that Place.

November 7. Laſt Night arriv'd an Expreſs with an Account, that Sir John Norris, with ten ſail of his Majeſty's Ships, arrived Yeſterday at 12 o'Clock at Spithead from a Cruize.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Crawford, who was ſo dangerouſly wounded at the Battle of Crotska by the Turks, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's and met with a moſt gracious Reception.

Our Letters by the laſt French Mail Adviſe, that the Toulon Squadron has been ſeen paſſing by Cartagena, ſteering towards Cadiz; but had no Troops on board.

November 10. This Day it was currently reported that the Spaniſh Troops are actually landed in Italy.

St Simons, December 1, 1741.

General Oglethorpe having lately had Intelligence of a large Engliſh Ship being off our Bar in the Poſſeſſion of the Spaniards, fitted and manned two Sloops and a Schooner viz. The Sloop St. Philip on board of which the General went himſelf with one hundred Men and Officers anſwerable; the Schooner Norfolk where Major Heron was with fifty Six Men; &c. and the Falcon Sloop where Capt. Debriſay was with thirty five Men; We all got over St. Simons Barr the 17th of Auguſt but the 19th the Sloop Falcon was diſabled and obliged to return into St. Simons Harbour after having put Capt. Debriſay and his Men on board the other two Veſſels We proceeded on our Cruiſe towards St. Auguſtine and on the 21ſt by break of Day we diſcovered a large Ship and Sloop anchor'd about three Leagues diſtant, it being Calm we towed and towed 'till we came up to 'em, and found 'em to be a Spaniſh Privateer Sloop Commanded by a Frenchman Capt. Leſtrade, and a Ship which was his Prize, lying without the Barr of St. Auguſtine, The General ordered to board them, and the Spaniards began firing with great and ſmall Arms, which we return'd ſo warmly that they were forced to quit their Anchors and Cables, and run in over the Breakers it being near high Water, and were purſued by our Sloop and Schooner, but the Sloop drawing more Water than the Schooner, was obliged to go about, and the Schooner, purſued them half a Mile over the Barr and in eight Feet Water, ſtill firing great and ſmall Arms, our Sloop and Schooner hull'd them ſeveral Times and Carried away the Privateer Sloop's Boltſprit, as we have been informed. The St. Philip had a Cannon Shot ſtruck her Qaurter-Deck; and the Schoner had her Jibb ſtay ſhot away, and ſeveral Muſquet Bullets thro' her ſails. The Gallies came down from before the Caſtle and Town, and fired Nine-pounders, but did us no Damage; we lay off and on all Night off the Bar of St. Auguſtine, and next Day ſailed for the Maxtanzas, but finding the whole Coaſt alarmed, returned back to St. Simons. We ſaw in the Harbour of St. Auguſtine three or four three Maſt Veſſels, two Veſſels of two Maſts, beſides Sloops; all Prizes (as we have ſince heard) taken from the Engliſh.

N B. General Oglethorpe engaged the above Spaniſh Veſſels for at leaſt an Hour.
